

Martock Local History Club

Program 2018

Tuesday 25th September

David Morris, Curator of Aircraft at the Fleet Air Arm Museum. He will relate his story of the history of the Yeovilton airfield.

Tuesday 23rd October

Ted Udall will talk on The Social History of Parish Registers. Ted is an experienced speaker and historian and will add colour and context to these crusty old documents.

Tuesday 27th November

Julian Orbach on Nonconformist Chapels in our area. Julian revised Pevsner's Buildings of England series for Somerset, and was struck by the effect that all these chapels had on our towns. Martock was and is a hotbed of sects with different opinions from the established C of E.

Program 2019

Tuesday 22 January

Brenda Webb will talk on the story of Montecute House.

Tuesday 26th February

Matt French will talk on Dowsing

Location

Unless otherwise noted all meetings will take place at Martock C of E Primary School in Elmleigh Road.

Nearest Post Code TA12 6EF

Doors open at 7.00pm for a start at 7.30pm prompt.

An annual membership of £10 gives free access to all talks. For non members a fee of £3 is payable per meeting.

When possible tea and coffee will be provided.
